Ladies and Gentlemen! We present to the theatre-going public "The Auburn Quartette" who need no introduction to the sport-loving public fans of our fair Southland. This is the same perfect organization that made a hit last year, with the exception of Christopher who has been replaced by Lindsay, and we are indeed fortunate in having them with us tonight. (Rather afternoon.)

A peculiar thing about this wonderful organization is the way the parts they sing correspond with the way they hit the line. Thus Harris, who starts the game, leads; Bidez, who bears a large part of the work, sings baritone; Hart, the fastest man on the squad and who only hits the ground in high places, sings tenor; and Lindsay, who hits the line low sings bass.

And it is no myth about their singing, for that's where they received their nicknames, which have a slight semblance to grand opera. "Fuzzy" Woodruff, after hearing Bidez sing in the Jefferson Theatre, Friday night November 14th, and seeing him march 55 yards through the Vanderbilt line the following afternoon, named Bidez, "Caruso," which only shows how much "Fuzzy" knows about music, for Bidez sang baritone. However, when he conceived the idea of the "Fullback Quartette" he not only showed he had some appreciation for music but an excellent idea of football.

A feature of the work of the quartette is solos by Harris and Bidez. Harris in his early training picked up a little Spanish and specializes in Spanish songs. Some time in a game he utters a Spanish word and charges a line, giving said line visions of the sport of old Mex., in which the red flag is introduced. Bidez hits the line low and skirts the ends, a wonderful range he covers on the field and just as large a range in his songs. Hart and Lindsay are often called into chorus work but when together this quartette can be depended upon to dispense yards of music and what is more important yards of gains. In years to come Auburn may have better songsters, and possibly better line plungers but never will she have a better combination.

AUBURN TIGERS BUMP THE MISSISSIPPI AGGIES

Aggies Got Theirs 19 Times—Financial Report of Mississippi A. & M. Game—In the Camp of Vandy.

Rickwood Park.—In a fiercely fought game Saturday, Oct. 24th, Auburn overwhelmed the Mississippi A. and M. by superior power and attack. For the first half it was a battle royal and kept the spectators in anguish because of the many fumbles by both teams.

The line play of both teams was one of the best ever seen on the local field. Neither back field seemed to be able to go through the other's line. Mississippi A. and M. made several forward passes over the middle of the line, due to the fact that the middle man on Auburn's secondary defense had to go back with Arnold on the kick formation because of "Ted's" bad knee.

The tackling of both defenses was

Finance Report

The Athletic Association reports that the Birmingham trip was profitable in more ways than one. The low price of cotton had slight effect on attendance of the football game, as was shown by the fact that the game in Birmingham was very nearly as well attended as the one last year. The following are the main figures:

Total gate receipts	$1938.00
General Expenses of game:
ticket sellers, rent of park,
paid officials, cost of tickets, and football	405.23

Net proceeds of game $1532.77

With the Pigskin in Southern Colleges

The race for the S. I. A. A. Championship has narrowed down to three colleges. Auburn, Vanderbilt and Tennessee.

Most of the teams Saturday played to form except in one or two instances, the result of the Georgia-Miss. A. and M. game coming rather as a surprise. While it was thought that A. and M. would put up a stiff fight, it was hardly believed that they would emerge victorious as they did by the score of 9 to 0. The heavy line of the maroon and white coupled with the terrific charges of Kimball and McArthur proved to be too much for the Cunningham bunch and they were forced to lower their colors for the first time in some years on Sanford Field.

McArthur, Kimball and Spurlock featured for the Mississippians in all departments with Paddock doing the best work for the Red and Black.

The Commodores were again humbled by the Virginians to the tune of 20 to 7, however, this game does not affect their rating in the

"SPADE" SOCIETY ORGANIZED

For the purpose of selecting each year the ten most prominent and influential men in the Senior Class and forming them into a society for the upholding of the honor and good name of the class and college, the "Spade" exists. Ten members of the Junior Class will be selected in May of each year. Membership depends entirely upon character scholarship, activities, athletics, and leadership. Any member of the Junior Class who has been registered as a student in the institution for at least two years, is of good character and who attains the minimum scholarship average is eligible. While some of the work of the organization is secret, democracy in all things is the aim. No politics or pledging enter the makeup and membership depends entirely upon merit. On this basis membership of "Spade" is considered the highest honor attainable, "Spade" should mean to Auburn what "Skull and Bones" and "Scroll and Key" mean to Yale.

The Reason

The cotton situation
Is very sad indeed;
I hate to see the farmer-folk
In such distressful need.

I'm sorry money's grown so scarce
And prices grown so big;
But that won't make my dad forget
The mark I made in Trig.

I can't explain that forty-two,
There'll be an awful jar.
Unless—by Jove, I'll say it was
The European war.

AUBURN, ALA., NOV. 5, 1914.

A word to the wise is usually sufficient. We can all agree that to do a mean trick which causes discomfort to others is not the nature of an Auburn man, yet, the other Saturday several students, in order to hear the Mississippi game free, tapped the wire and intercepted the telephone communications from Birmingham. The result was that the connection between Langdon Hall and Rickwood Park was very poor. The receiver of the messages here could scarcely hear because of the interruptions of our "backsliders." Why should a few lightwads be allowed to spoil the pleasure of a large crowd who paid to hear this game called off. We do not know who you are, we do not care, and we do not want to know, but let's don't let it happen again.

The following charter was adopted by the members of the Phi Kappa Phi, at a recent meeting; this charter, to which by-laws, to be published next week, are to be added will govern the Auburn Chapter:

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE PHI KAPPA PHI HONOR SOCIETY.

PREAMBLE. This constitution is adopted to provide a society dedicated to the Unity and Democracy of Education, and open to honor graduates of all departments of American Colleges and Universities.

Article 1. Name.

The name of this association shall be the PHI KAPPA PHI.

Article 2. Chapters and Members:

Section 1. This society shall consist of chapters established in colleges and universities of good standing. Each chapter shall be designated by the name of the college or university in which it is situated. New chapters shall be constituted by the Board of Regents.

Section 2. Each charter shall be signed by the President-General and Secretary-General of the Society, and attested by the seal of the society.

Section 3. The Board of Regents shall prescribe conditions on which charters shall be granted.

Section 4. All candidates for a baccalaureate or higher degree who are within one and one-fourth years of completion of the required course of study, shall be eligible to membership, provided that no member shall be admitted who has not achieved an honor record, and this provision shall not be construed to include any whose standing is below the first fourth of the graduating class.

Each chapter shall determine the manner in which standing shall be ascertained, but shall report to the secretary-general of the society the method used, and it shall be his duty to report any doubtful method to the General Convention. The General Convention shall have power to prescribe or change the qualifications of members, but shall not do away with the honor requirement, nor allow the admission of more than one-fourth of any class. No discriminations shall be made in elections by reason of sex or course of study. For the Auburn chapter, prerequisites for eligibility to membership shall be as follows:

1. 14 Units of College preparatory work.

2. 8 Terms of Collegiate work leading to the degree of B. S. or D. V. M.

Honorary Members may be elected, not to exceed three in one year, and shall be college graduates of scholarly attainments and of not less than five years standing. No chapter shall so elect a graduate of another institution in which there is a chapter without the consent of that chapter, unless the candidate be a member of the faculty of the institution in which the electing chapter exists.

Section 6. A new chapter may elect, during its first two years, any members of the faculty of its institution to active membership, and may also elect Alumni members, not to exceed an average of three per class, from each class previously graduated, provided that such graduates would have been eligible at the time of their graduation, and have made an honorable record after their graduation.

Section 7. The officers of a chapter shall be a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and such other officers as the chapter may provide, and each officer shall have the usual duties.

Section 8. Membership in this society shall not be held to interfere with membership in other fraternities or societies of any sort.

Section 9. The Board of Regents shall have authority to prescribe the terms on which other similar societies or fraternities shall be received into this society or become affiliated with it.

Section 10. The Board of Regents shall have power to constitute chapters. Alumni chapters shall not elect new members to the society.

fices, not herein provided, as may be found expedient; shall have power to interpret all provisions of the constitution, and shall elect by majority vote all general officers of the society and the board of regents.

These shall hold office for 3 years and until their successors shall be chosen; but any general convention may change the term of office, such change to take effect after the expiration of term of the officers already elected.

Section 2. The duties of the president shall be those usually pertaining to his office.

Section 3. The secretary-general, under the direction of the board of regents, shall have supervision of the chapters, and shall have charge of the correspondence, records, reports, and publications of the society except as otherwise provided.

Section 4. The registrar-general shall have charge of the roll of the society, and shall issue to each member elected, upon the certificate of the president of the chapter by which he was elected, an official certificate signed by the president-general of the society and the registrar-general, and attested by the seal of the society, and this certificate shall be the authority for initiation. The registrar-general shall maintain a list of the chapters of the society, publish a triennial catalogue, and shall be the custodian of the seal.

Section 2. Each candidate for initiation, before his certificate is issued by the registrar-general, and before initiation, shall pay to the treasurer-general, under regulations to be prescribed by the board of regents, the sum of one dollar.

Each chapter shall have authority to determine its own dues, and shall be responsible for the dues of its members to the general treasury. Dues in the Auburn chapter shall be $5.00, payable before initiation. The several schools in one institution shall constitute one chapter or several as the general convention may in each case prescribe.

Section 2. The general convention may arrange the chapters of the society in provinces under the supervision of provincial councils, according to geographical distribution, and may grant to the province such powers and organization as it may seem expedient.

Article 9. Adoption of the constitution.

On Saturday the following games were attended by representatives of Auburn's training force:

Coach Donahue witnessed the defeat of Vanderbilt by Virginia, at Nashville; Assistant Coach Tichenor and Pitts saw Ga. Tech trim the Sewanee Tiger; Assistant Coach Penton and Newell were in Athens to see Georgia hammer nine points out of Mississippi A. and M.

very severe, several of the men having to take time out.

In the second half, the Auburn team came out of the grand stand with all the "pep" in the world. And then started the series of end-runs by Hart and Prendergast which ended in Auburn's score of 19 points. The first touch down was made in the second quarter on a long pass from Prendergast to Arnold to Steed. It was one of the prettiest ever seen here. The blocking done by Auburn's men in the second half was so sure and hard that it was well nigh impossible to down the backs on their end runs.

In every department, Auburn clearly outclassed the Mississippi bunch though it cannot be left unsaid that the Aggies fought and fought to the last ditch.

Bidez began his plunging in the fourth quarter and on a tackle play went for twenty-five yards, but the whistle prevented another score.

Game in detail:

First Quarter. Captain Robinson won the toss and elected to receive. Potter kicked off the ten-yard line and Hart returned 15 yards. Harris went through the line for one yard. Hairston lost one yard around left end. Noble replaced Kinney. Hairston made first down through center. He tried the same place for 6 yards. He failed to gain on his third attempt. Hart took 3 yards around left end. Ball went over to A. and M. on Auburn's 40-yard line. McArthur went around left end for 7 yards. Jackson failed at right end. Kimball hit left tackle for 2 yards. He made first down over same place. Forward pass, McArthur to Noble netted 10 yards. Jackson failed at left tackle. He took 4 yards at same place. Carpenter replaced Potter. On attempted forward pass A. and M. lost 4 yards and the ball went over. Louisell punted to A. and M. 45 yard line and Noble returned 5 yards. Sample relieved Thigpen. Bidez crashed through center for 4 yards. He failed on two more attempts at the line. Failure to work the forward pass gave the ball to A. and M. Jackson fumbled and Auburn recovered. Auburn fumbled but recovered. Bidez gained 4 yards through line. He got 3 more at right tackle. Auburn was penalized 15 yards for holding. On the Noble punted and Arnold returned the oval to Auburn's 42-yard line. Bidez got one yard at right end. Hart fumbled but recovered. Louisell booted 30 yards to A. and M.'s 30-yard line. Jackson took one yard at right end. A. and M. worked forward pass for 15 yards but were penalized 5 yards for offside play. Jackson got one yard over right tackle. A Great Game, Eh!

THE OBSERVER

(By Overstreet)

A gook is a man who tells all he knows. While this is not a difficult feat for most of the breed, still it is often not the best policy. Refraining from such liberality may save you from appearing ridiculous to the other fellow and then it may prevent a sudden blackening of an optic.

Gus Graydon wants to know why a useless wild fowl like an elephant weighs two tons while a perfectly edible bird like a turkey weighs only 12 or 15 pounds. (N. B. this thought occurred to him during the Sigma Nu "feed" on Saturday night.)

We suppose that most of the Auburnites have noticed the similarity between autumn and other seasons but just the same here is a reminder to those who haven't.

Mayer and Span for one featured, as they have done in every game they have played in this season.

The Sewanee Tigers succumbed to the Yellowjackets in a hard fought game to the tune of 20 to 0. The Heisman bunch fought with more spirit than they have displayed in years and the game with the Orange and Blue should be a good one. Capt. Fielder, Patten, Goree and Senter starred for Tech and reports are to the effect that Fielder has all-Southern aspirations in view. Capt. Tolley did the best offensive work for the Purple, with Dobbins doing the stellar work on defensive play. The Tech team that met Sewanee is a different team from the one that met Alabama.

Tennessee continued her winning streak by smothering Chattanooga 67 to 0. McSpadden, Cameron, May and Lindsay, of the Volunteers pulled off run after run for long gains and the defensive play of the Tennesseans was superb.

Clemson bested Citadel 14 to 0, using straight football only. Webb, the hefty fullback of the Clemsonites was the shining light of the game and this man should be considered in making up an all-Southern pick.

Alabama easily smothered Tulane, the final count being 58 to 0. Of those playing the best for the Crimson and white were Harsh, Love, Long and Vandergraff, the punting and all round work of the latter featuring, as it has done in nearly every game played this season.

The East triumphed over the West in the Harvard-Michigan game in which the crimson emerged victorious by the score of 7 to 0. Every inch of ground was contested and the game was a great one from all points of view.
